7. Application of income and property

- 7.1 The income and property of the charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.
- 7.2 A director is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him or her when acting on behalf of the charity.
- 7.3 A director may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the charity's expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 189 of the Charities Act 2011.
- 7.4 A director may receive an indemnity from the charity in the circumstances specified in article 36.
- 7.5 A director may not receive any other benefit or payment unless it is authorised by article 8.
- 7.6 Subject to article 8 none of the income or property of the charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any member of the charity. This does not prevent a member who is not also a director receiving:
- 7.6.1 a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity;
- 7.6.2 reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the charity.

8. Benefits and Payments to charity directors and connected persons

8.1 General Provisions

8.1.1 No director or connected person may:

- 8.1.1.1 buy any goods or services from the charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;
- 8.1.1.2 sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the charity;
- 8.1.1.3 be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the charity;
- 8.1.1.4 receive any other financial benefit from the charity;

unless the payment is permitted by article 8.2 of this article, or authorised by the court or the Charity Commission.

In this article a "financial benefit" means a benefit, direct or indirect, which is either money or has a monetary value.

8.2 Scope and powers permitting directors' or connected persons' benefits

- 8.2.1 Subject to Article 8.1 a director or connected person may receive a benefit from the charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the charity.
- 8.2.2 A director or connected person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, sections 185 and 186 of the Charities Act 2011.
- 8.2.3 Subject to article 8.3 of this article a director or connected person may provide the charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with services provided to the charity by the director or connected person.
- 8.2.4 A director or connected person may receive interest on money lent to the charity at a reasonable and proper rate which must be not more than the Bank of England bank rate (also known as the base rate).
- 8.2.5 A director or connected person may receive rent for premises let by the director or connected person to the charity. The amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease must be reasonable and proper. The director concerned must withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.
- 8.2.6 A director or connected person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the charity on the same terms as members of the public.

8.3 Payment for supply of goods only – controls

- 8.3.1 The charity and its directors may only rely upon the authority provided by sub-clause 8.2.3 of this article if each of the following conditions is satisfied:
 - 8.3.1.1 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between the charity or its directors (as the case may be) and the director or connected person supplying the goods ("the supplier") under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the charity.
 - 8.3.1.2 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.
 - 8.3.1.3 The other directors are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a director or connected person. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of contracting with a director or connected person against the disadvantages of doing so.

8.3.1.4 The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the charity.

8.3.1.5 The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting.

8.3.1.6 The reason for their decision is recorded by the directors in the minute book.

8.3.1.7 A majority of the directors then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by article 8.

8.4 In sub-clauses 8.2 – 8.3 of this article 8:

8.4.1 "charity" includes any company in which the charity:

8.4.1.1 holds more than 50% of the shares; or

8.4.1.2 controls more than 50% of the voting rights attached to the shares; or

8.4.1.3 has the right to appoint one or more directors to the board of the company;

8.4.2 "connected person" includes any person within the definition in article 68 'Interpretation'.

9. Declaration of directors' duties

9.1 A director must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he or she has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the charity which has not previously been declared. A director must absent himself or herself from any discussions of the charity directors in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his or her duty to act solely in the interests of the charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

10. Conflicts of interests and conflicts of loyalties

10.1 If a conflict of interests arises for a director because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the articles, the unconflicted directors may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:

10.1.1 the conflicted director is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any arrangement or transaction affecting that other organisation or person;

10.1.2 the conflicted director does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of directors is present at the meeting; and

10.1.3 the unconflicted directors consider it is in the interests of the charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.

10.2 In this article a conflict of interest arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a direct or indirect benefit of any nature to a director or to a connected person.

11. Members

11.1 The subscribers to the memorandum are the first members of the charity.

11.2 Membership is open to other individuals or organisations who:

11.2.1 apply to the charity in the form required by the directors; and 11.2.2 are approved by the directors.

11.3 The directors may only refuse an application for membership if, acting reasonably and properly, they consider it to be in the best interests of the charity to refuse the application.

11.4 Membership is not transferable.

11.5 The directors must keep a register of names and addresses of the members.

11.6 The directors may from time to time fix the levels of entrance fees and subscriptions to be paid by the different categories of members provided that the directors shall ensure that the fees set by it do not preclude open membership of the charity.

11.7 The members shall pay any entrance fees and subscriptions set by the directors under article 11.6. Any member whose subscription fee is more than three months in arrears shall be deemed to have resigned as a member of the charity.

11.8 All members shall be subject to any rules made by the directors or the charity in accordance with these articles and shall respect the rules of rowing as recognised by British Rowing.

12. Classes of membership

12.1 The directors may establish classes of membership with different rights and obligations and shall record the rights and obligations in the register of members.

12.2 The directors may not directly or indirectly alter the rights or obligations attached to a class of membership.

12.3 The rights attached to a class of membership may only be varied if:

12.3.1 three-quarters of the members of that class consent in writing to the variation; or 12.3.2 a special resolution is passed at a separate general meeting of the members of that class agreeing to the variation.

12.4 The provisions in the articles about general meetings shall apply to any meeting relating to the variation of the rights of any class of members.

13. Termination of membership

13.1 Membership is terminated if:

13.1.1 the member dies or, if it is an organisation, ceases to exist;

13.1.2 the member fails to comply with or to continue to comply with any condition of membership set out in these articles or any rules made by the directors in accordance with these articles;

13.1.3 the member resigns by written notice to the charity unless, after the resignation, there would be less than 2 members;

13.1.4 any sum due from the member to the charity is not paid in full within 3 months of it falling due;

13.1.5 the member is removed from membership by a resolution of the directors that it is in the best interests of the charity that his or her membership is terminated. A resolution to remove a member from membership may only be passed if:

13.1.5.1 the member has been given at least 21 days' notice in writing of the meeting of the directors at which the resolution will be proposed and the reasons why it is to be proposed;

13.1.5.2 the member or, at the option of the member, the member's representative (who need not be a member of the charity) has been allowed to make representations to the meeting.

13.2 Any person ceasing to be a member forfeits all rights in relation to and claims upon the charity, its property and its funds and has no right to the return of any part of his subscription. The directors may refund an appropriate part of a resigning member's subscription if they consider it appropriate taking account of all the circumstances.

14. General Meetings

14.1 The charity must hold its first annual general meeting within 18 months after the date of its incorporation.

14.2 An annual general meeting must be held in each subsequent year and not more than 15 months may elapse between successive annual general meetings.

14.3 The general meeting shall be held for the following purposes:

14.3.1 to receive from the directors the charity's accounts;

14.3.2 to receive from the directors a report of the activities of the charity since the previous general meeting;

14.3.3 to announce the election of the directors to be appointed in accordance with these articles; and

14.3.4 to transact such other business as may be brought before it including without limitation the appointment of life members in recognition of outstanding contribution or long service to the charity.

14.4 The directors shall on the requisition of members pursuant to the Companies Act proceed to convene a general meeting for a date not later than 7 weeks after receipt of the requisition.

14.5 If there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient directors to call a general meeting any director or any two members of the charity may call a general meeting.

14.6 The directors may call a general meeting at any time.

15. Notice of general meetings

15.1 The minimum periods of notice required to hold a general meeting of the charity are:

15.1.1 21 clear days for a general meeting called for the passing of a special resolution;

15.1.2 14 clear days for all other general meetings including annual general meetings.

15.2 A general meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority who together hold not less than 90% of the total voting rights.

15.3 The notice must specify the date, time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of members to appoint a proxy under section 324 of the Companies Act 2006 and article 25.

15.4 The notice must be given to all the members and to the directors and auditors.

15.5 The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated because a person who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of an accidental omission by the charity.

16. Proceedings at general meetings

16.1 No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present.

16.2 A quorum is:

16.2.1 15 members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on the business to be conducted at the meeting; or

16.2.2 one-twentieth of the total membership at the time;
whichever is the greater.

16.3 The authorised representative of a member organisation shall be counted in the quorum.

16.4 In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more members attending it are in the same place as each other if their circumstances are such that if they have a right to vote at that meeting, they are able to exercise such right and if they are in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting, during the meeting, any information or opinions which that person has on the business of the meeting.

16.5 If:

16.5.1 a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting; or

16.5.2 during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present;

the meeting shall be adjourned to such time and place as the directors shall determine.

16.6 The directors must reconvene the meeting and must give at least 7 clear days' notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.

16.7 If no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting within 15 minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting 2 members present in person or by proxy at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting.

16.8 General meetings shall be chaired by the Chairman.

16.9 If the Chairman is not present within 15 minutes of the time appointed for the meeting the President shall chair the meeting.

16.10 If there is no such person or he or she is not present within 15 minutes of the time appointed for the meeting a director nominated by the directors shall chair the meeting.

- 16.11 If there is only one director present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting.
- 16.12 If no director is present and willing to chair the meeting within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding it, the members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote must choose one of their number to chair the meeting.
- 16.13 The members present in person or by proxy at a meeting may resolve by ordinary resolution that the meeting shall be adjourned.
- 16.14 The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date, time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened unless those details are specified in the resolution.
- 16.15 No business shall be conducted at a reconvened meeting unless it could properly have been conducted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.
- 16.16 If a meeting is adjourned by a resolution of the members for more than 7 days, at least 7 clear days' notice shall be given of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.
- 16.17 The meeting shall be adjourned if it appears to the chairman of the meeting that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any person attending the meeting or to ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.
- 16.18 The chairman of the general meeting may permit other persons who are not members of the charity to attend and speak at a general meeting.
- 16.19 Any vote at a meeting shall be decided by a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded:
- 16.19.1 by the person chairing the meeting; or
- 16.19.2 by at least two members present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote at the meeting; or
- 16.19.3 by a majority of the directors; or
- 16.19.4 by a member or members present in person or by proxy representing not less than one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting.
- 16.19.5 The declaration by the person who is chairing the meeting of the result of a vote shall be conclusive unless a poll is demanded.
- 16.19.6 The result of the vote must be recorded in the minutes of the charity but the number or proportion of votes cast need not be recorded.

- 16.19.7 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the person who is chairing the meeting.
- 16.19.8 If the demand for a poll is withdrawn the demand shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 16.19.9 A poll must be taken as the person who is chairing the meeting directs, who may appoint scrutineers (who need not be members) and who may fix a time and place for declaring the results of the poll.
- 16.19.10 The results of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll is demanded.
- 16.19.11 A poll demanded on the election of a person to chair a meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.
- 16.19.12 A poll demanded on any other question must be taken either immediately or at such time and place as the person who is chairing the meeting directs.
- 16.19.13 The poll must be taken within 30 days after it has been demanded.
- 16.19.14 If the poll is not taken immediately at least seven clear days' notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
- 16.19.15 If a poll is demanded the meeting may continue to deal with any other business that may be conducted at the meeting.

17. Content of proxy notices

- 17.1 Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in writing (a "proxy notice") which:
- 17.1.1 states the name and address of the member appointing the proxy;
 - 17.1.2 identifies the person appointed to be that member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;
 - 17.1.3 is signed by or on behalf of the member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the directors may determine; and
 - 17.1.4 is delivered to the charity in accordance with the articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.
- 17.2 the charity may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form, and may specify different forms for different purposes.

17.3 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

17.4 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as:

17.4.1 allowing the person appointed under it as a proxy discretion as to how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting; and

17.4.2 appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

18. Delivery of proxy notices

18.1 A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or on a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the charity by or on behalf of that person.

18.2 An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the charity a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

18.3 A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

18.4 If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

19. Written Resolutions

19.1 A resolution in writing agreed by a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution by a majority of not less than 75%) of the members who would have been entitled to vote on it had it been proposed at a general meeting shall be effective provided that:

19.1.1 a copy of the proposed resolution has been sent to every eligible member;

19.1.2 a simple majority (or in the case of a special resolution a majority of not less than 75%) of members has signified its agreement to the resolution; and

19.1.3 it is contained in an authenticated document which has been received at the registered office within the period of 28 days beginning with the circulation date.

19.2 A resolution in writing may comprise several copies to which one or more members have signified their agreement.

20. Votes of Members

- 20.1 Subject to article 12, every member, whether an individual or an organisation shall have one vote provided that his subscription for the month in which any general meeting falls has been paid.
- 20.2 Any objection to the qualification of any voter must be raised at the meeting at which the vote is tendered and the decision of the person who is chairing the meeting shall be final.
